

The following is a list of those Ruling Elders throughout Albany Presbytery who can provide communion on a one-to-one basis within their congregations provided that they are approved by their Sessions to do so and they report on their activity. To be eligible to serve communion in any congregation they need to be authorized by the presbytery. For more information, contact the Committee on Ministers and Congregations.

Contact information for each church is on the Congregations page of our website and they can help you reach individuals listed below.
