Into the Light: Finding Hope Through Prayers of Lament

Led by the Author and Artist—P. Lynn Miller

Into the Light: Finding Hope Through Prayers of Lament revives lament as a proper theological response to the difficult situations of our world. One of the foundational points of the study is that, in scripture, lament usually leads to hope. After crying out to God, the one who laments remembers God. And while that doesn't fix things in the moment—the injustice, the loss still exist—the lamenter is strengthened to face the world and to hope. And for us as Christians, hope is not just an emotional response or an attitude of pie in the sky. Hope implies movement: both God's inherent movement toward justice and our movement toward God. Recovering lament may be one of the church's most timely gifts to the world.

As you see, the author is also an artist, so anticipate some time spent creatively.

P. Lynn Miller, author and artist, is a Minister of Word and Sacrament in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). She has served as a workshop leader, graphic designer, and keynote speaker for conferences and gatherings on theology, worship, spirituality, education, and the arts.

Lynn has been a practicing artist for more than 25 years. She holds undergraduate and graduate degrees in fine arts and art history. Her work is in private and church collections throughout the country. She is a painter, a designer of textile art and stained glass, a curriculum writer, a graphic designer, and an art historian. Presbyterian women will recognize Lynn's work every time they see or don the Honorary Life Membership pin that Lynn designed.

The full program begins at 4pm on WEDNESDAY and ends with lunch on FRIDAY. Registration and check-in will start on Wednesday at 3:00 PM. Cost covers meals and a shared double room in one of our lodges. If requested at registration, a limited number of private rooms may be available at an additional cost.

Call 845-786-5674 with any questions.
