

From Alaska to Alabama; from California to the Carolinas; from Flint, Michigan, to Oak Flat, Arizona, people are coming together to organize moral outrage around poverty, racism, ecological devastation, and militarism into a transforming force, to turn the poor into agents of change rather than objects of history. - Rev. Dr. Liz Theoharis

The New And Unsettling Force: An Uprising of the Poor and Working Class

2019 Lamar Lecture, keynote
Rev. Dr. Liz Theoharis, National Co-Chair of the Poor People's Campaign: A National Call for Moral Revival

Joined by Willie Baptist of the Kairos Center

March 16th, 6:30pm - First Presbyterian Church 362 State St., Albany, NY

RSVP: bit.ly/NewAndUnsettling $10 suggested donation to benefit the Labor-Religion Coalition of NYS Childcare provided

Rev. Theoharis will also be preaching Mar. 17 at 8:30 & 10:45 services. All invited.

Sponsored by the Lamar Lecture Fund of First Presbyterian Church of Albany

