

The 2019-2020 PW/Horizons Bible Study at Stony Point Center

Love Carved in Stone: A Fresh Look at the Ten Commandments

By Eugenia Gamble & Led by Joyce MacKichan Walker

May 7- 9, 2019

The passages in Exodus and Deuteronomy that include the Ten Commandments are some of the most well-known, oft-quoted, and highly valued biblical texts. But the commandments individually are too frequently used to judge others, and to present an uncompromising God of stern prohibition. This fresh look at the Ten Commandments or, more literally, the Ten Words, engages participants in examining the early contexts of the two forms of the Ten Commandments, so that we may better understand and interpret their intent. We will find here a compelling invitation to respond to God's action on our behalf, together with guidance and direction for our daily lives of discipleship, by following both the commandments and Jesus' example. The commandments speak to us as individuals and as a community of faith; nothing less than transformed faith and action honor God's love letter to God's called, chosen, beloved people.

Joyce MacKichan Walker was the Director of Christian Education at Nassau Presbyterian Church in Princeton, NJ for eighteen years and in 2007 became the Minister of Education which later included Mission. A 1979 graduate of the Presbyterian School of Christian Education (now Union Presbyterian Seminary) and a Certified Christian Educator since 1983, her first love is teaching, which she actively practices as a workshop leader and keynoter. Her writing includes the Suggestions for Leaders for three Presbyterian Women's Bible Studies – Hearing God's Call in Jonah and Ruth (2007-08), Joshua: A Journey of Faith (2009-10), and this year's study – Love Carved in Stone: A Fresh Look at the Ten Commandments. Joyce and her husband Michael, also a Presbyterian minister, both retired in July 2018. Now she can say yes to all these fun invitations to teach!

*The full program begins at 4pm on TUESDAY and ends with lunch on THURSDAY. Registration and check-in will start on Tuesday at 3:00 PM.
