

Trinity Reformed Church in Rochester NY

Interim or Contract Minister

Trinity Reformed Church in Rochester NY is seeking an interim or contract minister to serve our congregation of 134 members while we search for a new pastor. Our congregation includes people of all ages, including many mature church-goers and several young families. We are very involved in mission and outreach and have many people committed to service in and outside of the church. We have a loving and caring congregation and a capable and dedicated church staff.

We are looking for someone who is warm and sociable, preaches well, and can offer pastoral care to help us through this time of transition to whatever God has in mind for Trinity and the pastor who is being called to be here. We are considering full-time or part-time ministry and have a parsonage available.
