Our mission partner RMM (Rural & Migrant Ministry) has just announced a 6-month cohort training called "Breaking Down Walls and Building Community in Rural New York State."

It will launch on April 26 and conclude October 4.

The goal of this cohort is to live in hope as we develop a greater competency to be an agent for social transformation in rural America; to dismantle walls of oppression and to fight the tendency to "other" and marginalize people; seeking to build a welcoming table for all in the midst of the borderlands. Participants will develop understandings, skills and networks that will strengthen their leadership as drum majors for social transformation in rural America. We are inviting a diverse array of clergy and lay leaders from Protestant, Pentecostal, Evangelical, Roman Catholic, Jewish and other faith traditions to root ourselves in the story of Exodus as we learn from one another and work to dismantle walls and build partnership.
