"My mouth shall speak wisdom; the meditation of my heart shall be understanding" Psalm 49:3

Winter 2024

Message from the Moderator Andrea Ralph

It is an honor to become the Moderator of the Presbyterian Women in the Presbytery of Albany. I have prayerfully accepted position this and have enjoyed working with our dedicated Coordinating Team. In our community of Presbyterian women, we celebrate the rich experiences and expressions that each individual and group bring to the table. Whether we find ourselves drawn to advocacy, fellowship, mission, or nurturing spirituality, we recognize that each avenue holds its own significance and contributes to the collective journey of Presbyterian Women. We know Presbyterian Women are aligned under a shared Purpose, but the gifts of the Spirit allow us to live into the Purpose in our own, unique ways. One of the purposes of Presbyterian Women in the Albany Presbytery Coordinating Team is to be a resource for PW groups and other women's groups that wish to have some involvement in PW activities or form a PW group.

If your congregation has a women's group that has an interest in affiliating with Presbyterian Women and you would like me to visit, please contact me at aralph20@hotmail.com. The only thing a women's group needs to be to consider itself a Presbyterian Women's group is for its activities to fit into any aspect of the Presbyterian Women's Purpose. Feel free to reach out to anyone on our team.

The Coordinating Team of Presbyterian Women in the Presbytery of Albany

Elder Andrea Ralph, our current Moderator of Presbyterian Women in the Presbytery of Albany and a member of Roessleville Presbyterian Church has been nominated to be the Black/African American/African Member-at-large on the Presbyterian Women's Churchwide Board of Directors. This position has been created to ensure that the voices of Black, African American and African women are heard and to bring a diverse point of view. She will be installed to this position at the Presbyterian Women's 2024 Churchwide Gathering in St. Louis, Missouri in August and serve a three-year term.

We are very aware of Andrea's dedication to Presbyterian Women and her leadership skills. We're extremely happy and proud that her abilities are recognized beyond our Presbytery. Andrea's exposure to Presbyterian Women at the Churchwide level will be a real benefit to PW in the Presbytery of Albany.

Presbytery PAL Program
By Charlotte Hasselbarth

Last year PW in the Synod of the Northeast established the PWP PAL program. It had been noted that Presbyterian Women's (PW) groups in churches in presbyteries where there is no longer a presbytery level Coordinating Team, are missing a critical information flow from the Churchwide and Synod levels of PW.

PW in the Presbytery of Albany was asked to establish a communication link with PW leaders and other interested women in the Northern New York Presbytery. We have been very fortunate to have created a relationship with three PW in the congregation groups in the Northern New York Presbytery. The PW in our Presbytery has established a special email group for people in the Northern New York Presbytery. This connection has yielded an unexpected benefit. In the process of creating the email group I got to know Margot McGorman, a member of PW of Jefferson County (a combined PW group from First Presbyterian Church of Watertown and close by Stone Presbyterian Church). Her PW was involved in the creation of "Women of Grace Widows Fund", a mission program in Malawi. Margot was invited to speak at the "Presbyterian Women in the Synod of the Northeast Caring and Sharing Meeting" that focused on Together in Service on Sun, Jan 7. Her talk inspired much interest and many questions.

Fall Gathering

Presbyterian Women in the Presbytery of Albany Fall Gathering was held at Westminster Presbyterian Church and topic was “Impediments to Children’s Literacy”. The guest speaker was Dr. Kimberly Wilkins, recently retired New York State Educational Deputy Commissioner of P-12 Instructional Support. The session began by presenting statistical data illustrating the disparities or gaps in literacy levels among students in public schools. Dr. Wilkins explained reading is the foundation for educational success and opportunities in life. Children without the necessary literacy skills can fall behind quickly, and the consequences last a lifetime. The interactive session was an opportunity to reflect on personal experiences in school and present situations with children and grandchildren. The interactive nature of the session encouraged participants to reflect on their own experiences with literacy in school, as well as their observations of literacy challenges faced by their own children and grandchildren. This reflective exercise helped participants better understand the significance of addressing literacy gaps and exploring potential solutions to support improved literacy outcomes for all students. Past Moderator Bisi Shofu followed with an informative discussion entitled “Education is the Key”, explaining how we as presbyterian women can play an active role to support literacy. Participants donated over fifty books which were given to Wizards Wardrobe for distribution to students. Encouraging reading at home is crucial for fostering literacy and a love for books among students. The gathering closed with a Book Dedications Service led by Pastor Kathi Jones.

Least Coin
by Rosalie Hemingway

The Fellowship of the Least Coin is a worldwide program where people around the world set aside a coin of the lowest denomination of their country when saying a prayer for wholeness and fellowship for all peoples. These coins are collected and when put together become a large amount which is used for several types of grants. Project grants numbering twelve and totaling $47,000 in 2023 went to support mental health, menstrual health, bee keeping, peacebuilding, and children's sports. Block grants totaling $52,000, scholarships to individuals of $1,000, and emergency grants of $8,000 for disaster relief brought the total to $108,000 for the year.

Additional information may be found in the November/December issue of Horizons or on the Presbyterian Women's website www.presbyterianwomen.org. Please considering participating in this fundraising endeavor in 2024 and sending your contributions to the Churchwide office at: Presbyterian Women, Inc., Remittance Processing-Giving, PO Box 643652, Pittsburgh, PA 15264.
